MEDIA★RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DECK THE HALLS WITH WIGS & GLITTER

To start off the holiday season, Wiggins Pro-Ductions will be hosting the HoHoHo Drag Show, a night of fun and dancing, Friday December 7 at Black Pirates Pub. The show will feature Thunder Bay's top drag queens and kings as they strut their holiday stuff while helping to bring in food for the Thunder Bay Shelter House.

HoHoHo aims to celebrate pride awareness and shine the spotlight on the city's growing gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered/transsexual and queer community in a fun, safe, and open environment while also helping out those who are less fortunate. "Events like these are a way for everyone to give back to the community," says event promoter Jimmy Wiggins, "and help to ensure that everyone has something to eat over the holidays."

There will be door prize draw entries for anyone who brings in non-perishable food items for the Thunder Bay Shelter House. Each item brought in is worth one ticket in the draw. The more food brought in, the more chances to win! Prizes have been generously donated from businesses around Thunder Bay, including Creation Body Piercing, Red Earth Imports, Dolls With Toys, Firestarter Cosmetics, and Arbonne.

To add a fun spin to this show, in the spirit of the popular LGBTQ reality TV show, RuPaul's Drag Race, HoHoHo will be having a "Lip Sync for Your Life" contest, where audience members will get their chance to battle it out on stage by doing their very own lip-sync performance. Prizes will be awarded to the best lip-syncers.

The show's lineup will include TBay drag royalty, Queen Portia and King Ivan Love, both winners of this year's drag competition. Also on hand will be fan favorites Fantasia LaPremiere, Paloma Marquez, Faux Rocious, and Will Ramya - as well as the "mistress of ceremonies," Miss Anna K, and DJ Jaqi Iraqi. Doors open at 10pm with tickets being $5. For more information visit www.TBshows.com.
